RESPONSE

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Responsive to the Notice of missing requirements of April 12, 2006, reconsideration of the application is requested in view of the remarks presented herein.

The notice indicated that an English translation of the application must be submitted together with the $130 for processing the translation. The notice further indicated that the number of the PCT claims was different from the claims submitted in the translation.

Obviously, there is some confusion.

The application was filed in the English language as can be seen from copy of the filed application, so no translation or $130 processing fee is required. The English text has 12 claims in contrast with to the 9 claims presented in the PCT application and the claims submitted to the United States were not the same as the PCT claims in an attempt to conform the United States claims to the American practice. The American text conformed to the PCT text and an English translation of the PCT claims is not deemed necessary. However, Applicants will supply an English translation of the PCT claims if the Patent Office requires it. Enclosed is a copy of the Notice and it is requested that the same be forwarded to the group for examination in due course.

Respectfully submitted,
Hedman and Costigan
